The Marionette

1950

Marion College

Marion, Indiana

Foreword

"Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The last of life, for which the first was made:
Our times are in his hand
Who saith, 'A whole I planned,
Youth shows but half; trust God:
  see all, nor be afraid!' "

Robert Browning, the English poet, expressed his philosophy of life in the poem, "Rabbi Ben Ezra". A distinguished Jewish scholar of the twelfth century, Ben Ezra, by his writings, suggested the ideas used by Browning. Selected lines from this vigorous poem with its undertone of faith in God have been used as the theme for the 1950 volume of the Marionette.

Dedication

For the past ten years Rev. Howard T. Noggle has been Field Representative of Marion College. He has spent long hours in travel, in holding services, in talking with prospective students, and in encouraging people throughout the Marion College Area to support their school. In appreciation of his work, but more especially in appreciation of the spirit in which he performs it, of his loyalty to Marion College, and of his supreme devotion to God, it is to Howard Noggle that we respectfully dedicate the 1950 Marionette.

The General Office

Artists' workshop

The building pictured above is the goal toward which everyone interested in Marion College is working. Williams Hall, the proposed men's dormitory, is thus far only an architect's drawing, but all of us are looking forward to the day when it will become a reality on the campus. The new building will house 100 men, an increase of 600 per cent over present dormitory facilities for men.

"Earth changes, but thy soul and God stand sure:
What entered into thee,
THAT was, is, and shall be:
Time's wheel turns back or stops: Potter and clay endure."

MARION COLLEGE

We Live and Learn

"Here, work enough to watch
The Master work, and catch
Hints of the proper craft,
Tricks of the tool's true play."

PRESIDENT WM. F. McCONN
M.A., B.O., D.D.

CAROLYN FISHER
Secretary to the president

Through eighteen epoch-making years Dr. William F. McConn has led Marion College steadily forward. By his sincere Christian life and testimony, his untiring efforts to further the cause of Marion College, and his friendly attitude and wise counsel, our president has won a warm place in each of our hearts.

CLIFTON A. LETHERER
Treasurer

MURIEL A. KLAASEN
Bookkeeper

For the past four years, Clifton A. Letherer has efficiently served Marion College as the manager of her financial affairs. Besides his heavy duties as treasurer, he also serves as pastor of the Antioch and Hanfield Methodist Churches.

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association is ever working at the task of maintaining contact with the many students who have gone out from Marion College. Headquarters for this organization are in the basement of the library building. From this office the Alumni Bulletin is sent out. Under the leadership of the Executive Secretary, Clarence Huffman, the alumni are carrying out a project for raising funds to build Williams Hall, the new men's dormitory. Another activity of the club is the annual banquet given in the spring for the graduating class and for all alumni who are able to return to their Alma Mater for the occasion. The Reverend Garl Beaver is the capable president of the association.

Students

"Eyes, ears took in their dole,
Brain treasured up the whole;
Should not the heart beat once,
How good to live and learn?"

College Church

"Look thou not down but up"

Worship services at the College Church are indeed a time of looking up. The times of revival, the inspiration and victories of Youth Week, and the regular blessing of spiritual meals have made this a sacred place dear to our hearts.

Varsity Quartet

The Varsity Quartet has been active in the ministry of the gospel through song both on and off the campus throughout this school year. Members of the quartet are Harry Connor, first tenor; James Wilson, second tenor; James Hane, baritone; and Clinton Butcher, bass. These four young men are from North Carolina; Ontario, Canada; Oklahoma; and Wisconsin, respectively.

Traveling many miles as representatives for Christ and for Marion College, the quartet has sung for numerous organizations and churches of several denominations in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and Michigan. The Lord has greatly used the quartet and blessed their message to many hearts.

First row: Holley, Day, Welch, Houser, Brown, Stair, Price, Sheets, Johnson
Second row: Spangler, Holmes, Bahr, Martin, Sparks, Smith, Bess, Baker, Sloan
Third row: Huff, Benedict, Powers, Martin, Wagner, Trump, Cecil, Fullmer

College Choir

Choir Rehearsal

Composed of twenty-six members selected for their Christian experience and musical ability, the College Choir has traveled extensively, singing the gospel message for many schools, churches, and other organizations. The traditional Easter tour included services held in Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky; and during May, an extended trip into Michigan was taken.

College and Community Chorus

Outstanding among the musical activities of Marion College are the two concerts presented by the chorus. This organization, directed by Prof. Herman Baker, is comprised of volunteers from the college, the community, and the church. During the Christmas season, this group presented Handel's "Messiah", and on the Sunday preceding Easter, they gave an excellent rendition of Maunder's cantata, "Olivet to Calvary".

Standing: Wheeler, Lappin, Sime, Wood
Seated: Bowman, Butcher, Kaufman, Justus

W. Y. P. S.

Under the leadership of Paul Wheeler and his faithful program committee, the Sunday evening services of the Wesleyan Young People's Society in the College Church have been times of spiritual growth and blessing. Sponsored by this group were the wonderful Youth Week services with Rev. Edwin Foot and Prof. Stanley Banker as workers.

F. M. F.

The Foreign Mission Fellowship, led by Betty Freeborn, is composed of students with definite missionary interests. This group united with the W. Y. P. S. and the Student Conference in sponsoring the Missionary Convention, Oct. 31 to Nov. 1. Special project this year was the raising of funds by the entire school for the sending out of a couple to the mission field.

Warren, Robertson, Kilpatrick

Justus, Rush, Deisler, Nicholson, Blaine, Butcher, Tippey

Student Conference

Meeting each Tuesday evening in the chapel, the Student Conference is a vital part of the Christian life on Marion College campus. Led this year by our capable president, R. S. Nicholson, Jr., the Student Conference proved to be a place of great spiritual blessing. Sponsored by the Student Conference are the noon prayer meetings, and the services held in the children's home, the jail, the Delta Electric factory, and the infirmary. The Student Conference also sponsors the sending out of gospel teams which represent our Savior and our school in various denominations in Indiana and surrounding states.

Eurekan Society

Eureka! We have found it—a society of outstanding merit. On Rush Day 82 new students pledged their loyalty to the green and white colors and the symbol of the torch.

On the softball diamond both the fellows' and the girls' teams proved their supremacy. Speaking of selling Marionettes, this society won the contest for the sixth consecutive year, thus claiming their second loving cup. Their percentage of sales per member was 1.96 with 399 among their 204 members. Eva Gilger served as president the first term. John Basham was elected for the winter term. Dr. Dayton was again chosen as sponsor.

Amphictyon Society

Ranging at the top this year in competitive spirit were the Amphics. Nothing daunted their will to reach for higher goals, and in athletics and in the Marionette Sales Contest their capability was prominent. Melvin Welch sold 27 annuals for the Amphics, claiming the position as top salesman in the school. The Amphics had a total of 307 sales among their 192 members, making their percentage 1.59.

Heyman Duecker led the society in the fall and through the winter term, Harry Connor was president. Prof. Main was sponsor of the society.

Community Chorus To Sing Messiah Dec. 18th

You'd Better Be Good – Santa Schedules His Annual Visit To M. C.

By Dorothy Parton

If you hear sleigh bells Friday night, December 16, don't be too surprised. It won't mean that Santa is running off schedule, but simply that he is coming to pay a pre Christmas visit to the students of Marion College who have been good boys and girls all year —well, as far as the social deans know. Santa's appearance with the yearly letter he reads is only one of the interesting and entertaining items on the program that those who attend the annual Christmas dinner will enjoy.

Tentative plans for the program include a song by little Barbara Mayo. There will be a reading and several vocal numbers by individuals and quartets. A group of students will play a medley of Christmas songs. Yuletide music will be furnished throughout the dinner by Margaret Price and others taking their turn at the piano.

As for decorations and food — there are rather closely guarded secrets, but we can assure you there will be plenty of food, Santas, sleighs, holly, bells, candy, and fun.

There are only two things left for everyone to do. First, get all those last-minute, hurried preparations done. Then sit down and wish hard for a snow or at least a cool, steady rain to make the Christmas dinner Friday night a typical one!

Orchestra Presents Annual Fall Concert

The annual Fall concert of the M. C. Orchestra was given Friday evening, December 9, in the college chapel. The excellent performance reflected well the able leadership of Mrs. Nussey and the many hours spent in preparation by the orchestra members.

The program was opened with a martial air as the orchestra played "Light Cavalry" from Von Supps. The narrator, John Heavilin, took the audience to a plantation party up the land of cotton, as the orchestra played for their second number "Uncle Remus Tells a Story," by J. S. Zamecnik. This was followed by a gay cornet solo, "Atlantic Zephyrs," played by Myrna Martin.

Next the audience was transported to a quiet hillside as they viewed "The Lake at Sorsel" through the eyes of the modern composer Maganini. This mood was soon disrupted by the rousing "American Youth March" by Carter Thomas Lewis then played the difficult clarinet solo, "Concertino" by Von Weber.

An atmosphere of romance was created, as the orchestra played "In a Moonlight Garden," by King. The popular "Bells of St. Mary," by Adams, was next presented, with Marine Rickey playing the bells. The approaching Christmas season was heralded with a number of familiar Christmas tunes woven into "A Christmas Fantasy" by Bergh. Clinton Butcher played the beautiful trombone solo, "Contentus" by David.

The next number provoked smiles from the audience as John Heavilin narrated and the orchestra portrayed characters and objects in the story of "The Three Bears," by Long. Many familiar themes, ranging from "Dixie" to "America" were recognized as the concert closed with "An American Fantasy" by Grossman.

Literary Contests Announce Deadlines

The Bard Review, a national student quarterly, in following its policy of stimulating student creative activity, is sponsoring a short story and poetry contest which is open to any student enrolled in any college or university.

Prizes include $100 for the best short story and $100 for the best poem, with a second prize of $50 in each of these fields. The winning entries will be published in the Winter and Spring issues of the Bard Review. Each manuscript will be judged solely on its literary merit. All non-prize winning entries will be considered for publication.

Those entering the contest must include their own name and the name of their college on the title page of each entry. As far as it is known now, the contest will close on or about February 10.

Tomorrow magazine also has announced that the deadline for all entries in the College Writers' Short Story Contest (published in a previous issue of the Journal) is January 15, 1950.

First prize in this contest is $500, with a second prize of $300, and a third prize of $200. Prize-winning stories will be published in the spring and summer of 1950. Each entry should be marked College Contest and bear the writer's name, his home address, and the name and address of the college he is attending.

The English Department of Marion College urges students to participate in these literary contests, and either Miss Dodd or Miss Eder will assist any student desiring further information concerning these contests.

Polston, Campbell, Stair, Butcher To Be Soloists

Ruth Ann Polston, soprano, Vida Mae Stair, contralto, Ralph Campbell, tenor, and Clinton Butcher, baritone, will be soloists for the annual presentation of The Messiah, which will be presented in the College Church, Sunday, December 18. This is the first year for Ralph Campbell and Clinton Butcher to perform as soloists, and marks the third year for each of the other two.

The chorus, under the direction of Prof. Herman Baker, will give only one performance this year, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Ruth Nussey and Mrs. Gretchen Parker will furnish the accompaniment. The entire Messiah will not be sung, but the best known and most famous portions of it will be presented. Also included in the program will be a group of appropriate selections sung by the Marion College a cappella choir.

This presentation is one of the most well known Christmas festivities at Marion College and is an offering of the College to the community. Members of the chorus have been practicing each Monday evening for several weeks in order to make this the best presentation ever given.

Enrollment Gains 12

A gain of twelve new students so far this year has been reported by the registrar's office. This brings the total enrollment up to about 425, as opposed to about 400 at this time last year. These are only approximate figures, however, as the full enrollment has not yet been calculated.

Dr. DeVol Addresses IRC At Closed Meeting

The IRC held its first closed meeting of the winter term on Monday, December 5, in the parlor of Peter Hall.

The main feature of the meeting was the talk given by Dr. Charles DeVol. Dr. DeVol spoke on the subject of "Communism in China." Beginning with the start of Chinese communism, Dr. DeVol traced its progress through that country. With the interesting incidents of his own personal encounters with communism and his vast knowledge of the country and people of China, he presented the subject as no one else on the campus could. Those who were privileged to attend the meeting were indeed highly favored.

Librarians

Ever ready to help students find necessary study materials in the library are Miss Moshier, the librarian, and her staff of able assistants.

"Bio" Club

Another new group, the Biology Club, was organized this year with Clara Weaver as president. Its purpose is to promote a lively interest in the biological sciences.

Physical Science Club

Marvin Hinds, who served as president of this new and prospering organization, led in stimulating the members to a greater interest in the physical sciences.

F. T. A.

Newly formed on the campus this year was the A. Jones Chapter of the National F.T.A. Organization. This club is composed of students who plan to make teaching their profession. The group made Paul Davidson president for the year.

French Club

Through several activities the French Club, led by James Wilson this year, seeks to maintain among its members a lively interest in the French language and people. At the left is a picture taken during a skit presented by the club during a chapel program.

Spanish Club

With Earl Kilpatrick as president, the Spanish Club has encouraged in many ways a greater interest in the Spanish language and in the Spanish-speaking peoples of South America.

"M" Club

Established to replace the Inter-Society Council of other years, the "M" Club, made up of letter men and women, regulates inter-society athletics and sets up rules governing the winning of letters. President for the year was Darrell Wagner.

S. A. R.

A number of distinguished men, known as Senators and Representatives, make their home at Congress Hall.

Y. T. C.

To promote interest in the problems created by the use of alcoholic beverages and to work for moral reform are the purposes of the Youth's Temperance Council led this year by John Friske.

Standing: Miss Waters, Prof. Main, Berkebile
Seated: Cooper, Deisler, Evans, Simpson, DeVol, Benedict, James, Zuhl

Student Council

The official faculty-student mediator, the Student Council led by Robert Berkebile, undertook as one of its many responsibilities for the year the raising of funds toward the building of Williams Hall.

C. C. C.

The Council of Cheerful Comrades, an organization of dormitory girls, sponsored again this year the Christmas, Valentine, and Birthday Dinners. Presidents the first two terms were Netty Davis and Beulah Butcher.

*Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities

JOHN BASHAM

John Basham, from Louisville, Kentucky, has been assistant to the Dean of Men for the past two years. During his years on the campus, John has held positions as vice-president and president of the Student Conference, president of the Y.T.C., Eurekan president, and sports editor of the Journal. He has also been a member of the S. A. R., the Intersociety Council, the Dixie Club, Foreign Language Club, the "Bio" Club, F.M.F., the Art Forum, and the Forensic Club. John has also found time to participate in softball and basketball, as well as being a gospel team member for four years and a leader for three years.

ROBERT BERKEBILE

Robert Berkebile, from Johnstown, Pennsylvania, first came to Marion College campus in 1943. After being here for only two terms, during which time he was a member of the A Cappella Choir, Robert was called to serve in the United States Army. Four years later he again resumed his studies here. A loyal member of the Amphictyon Society, Robert has served as president of the Veteran's Organization and as president of the College W. Y. P. S. This year he is president of the Student Council.

* Elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and ability to succeed.

NETTY DAVIS

Another Buckeye among those elected to the "Who's Who" is Netty Davis, who has served this year as women's physical education instructor. An enthusiastic Amphic who has been outstanding for her participation in sports, she was elected in 1947 to the All-Star Basketball Team. In addition to being president of the C. C. C., Netty is also a charter member of the newly organized "M" Club, and of the "Bio" Club.

HEYMAN DUECKER

Outstanding in chemistry and mathematics is Heyman Duecker who comes from Medina, Ohio. In his sophomore year, he was vice-president of his class and sports reporter for the Journal. This year he was Amphic president, a member of the German Club and the Science Club, and an assistant in the Chemistry Department.

ROBERT HUGHES

For the past three years Robert Hughes has been the men's physical education instructor, and for two years was one of the All-Stars. His list of responsibilities include treasurer of the Westerner's Club, assistant business manager of the Marionette, president of the Junior class of '49, Eurekan President, and a member of the Student Council. Robert was a member of the Westernaires Quartet and of the College Choir. He has also been a soloist in the "Messiah".

UNPHOTOGRAPHED
R. S. NICHOLSON

A true son of the South, R. S. Nicholson came to Marion College campus in 1946, following three years of service in the Navy. During his Freshman year, he was secretary of his class, a member of the debate team, and president of the Amphictyon Society. Besides being an active member in the Forensic Club, the French Club, and the Foreign Mission Fellowship, R. S. has served as President of the Dixie Club and I. R. C., and at present is president of the Student Conference.

NELSON STREET WESLEYAN CHURCH

ENVIRONMENT—"It is possible to live very near to God under every conceivable environment, and what is possible is our highest duty."

Bishop William E. McLaren

Rev. Garl Beaver, Th.B.
Pastor

GEORGE STREET
WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

MY CHURCH

My church is where the Word of God is preached, the power of God is felt. the Spirit of God is manifested, the love of God is revealed and the unity of God is perceived.

It is the home of my soul, the altar of my devotions, the hearth of my faith, the center of my affections and the foretaste of heaven.

I have united with it in solemn covenant, pledging myself to attend its services, to pray for its members, to give to its support, and to obey its laws.

It claims the first place in my heart, the highest place in my mind, the principal place in my activities, and its unity, peace and progress concern my life in this world and in that which is to come.

I owe it my zeal, my benevolence and my prayers. When I neglect its services, I injure its good name, I lessen its power, I discourage its members, and I chill my own soul.

I have solemnly promised in the sight of God and men to advance its interests by faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with my fellow members, by watching over their welfare, and by joining with them in prayer, praise and service, and that promise I this day renew, before God my father, Christ my Redeemer, and the Holy Ghost my Sanctifier.—John Bunyan Smith.
